

Assignment

Build an web application that allows anyone to register their startup companies.

- Show list of Registered Startup companies using a datagrid.
- Add new startup.
- Edit existing startup.

Please use below class name and properties.

Startup class.

- BusinessDomain: string
- Description: string
- GrossSales: decimal
- NetSales: decimal
- BusinessStartDate: datetime
- Website: string
- BusinessLocation: string
- EmployeeCount: int
- FounderName: string

1. Design the database table structure using ER diagram.
2. Design and develop the backend using .Net with C#, Clean Architecture and CRQS design pattern.
3. Design the UI using angular or reactjs (No need fancy user interface)
4. Use best practices, OOP concepts, clean code and comments as much as possible.

Please let me know if you have any questions.

Please share source code, database scripts and related documents by 30th of December.